The AUTOTYPE COMPANY are producers of Book Illustrations by the Autotype and Sawyer's Collotype Processes. Employed by the Trustees of the British Museum, Palæographical, Numismatical, Royal Geographical, and other learned Societies.

Facsimiles of Medals and Coins, Ancient MSS., Paintings, Drawings, Sketches, Views and Portraits from Nature, &c.

Note.—The special advantages of the Autotype Process for Book Illustrations are:—

1st. The absolutely facsimile nature of the result.
2nd. Its Cheapness for Small Editions of 250, 500, &c.
3rd. The Prints being direct on the Paper, there is an absence of all cockling and that disagreeable effect inherent to all Mounted Prints.

WITH ILLUSTRATIONS AND MAPS.
"It is quite possible that there may be other English residents who know Portugal and the Portuguese as well as Mr. Crawfurd, but it is certain that no Englishman has written more interesting books on the country."—Saturday Review.
"Mr. Crawfurd's admirable book is most opportune, and his long residence in the country, his intimate and critical knowledge of the language, history, poetry, and the inner life of the people render him an authority as safe to follow as he is pleasant. . . . The book is excellent in every way."—Athenæum.
"Than this a more agreeable account of Portugal and the Portuguese could scarcely have been written, and it will surprise us if the book does not live as one of the best descriptions we possess of a foreign nation."—St. James's Gazette.
"The reader acquires a distinct and vivid impression of the matters that are chosen to be worked out; and as they include political and domestic economy, history, literature, antiquities, geography, agriculture, sport, and, most important of all, port wine, there is diversity enough to suit every taste. Mr. Crawfurd, however, though he has a lively sense of fun and a considerable faculty of writing wittily, does not allow these gifts to gain the mastery over him."—Pall Mall Gazette.

MUDIE'S SELECT LIBRARY.

MUDIE'S SELECT LIBRARY was established in 1842, in order to meet the growing demand of the age for a Higher Class of Books than could then be readily obtained on moderate terms from the ordinary Circulating Libraries.

From its commencement the original purpose of the Library has been kept steadily in view. The best Books of every shade of opinion, on all subjects of general interest, have been taken in large numbers—Hundreds, and in some instances Thousands, of Copies of the Leading Works of every Season having been placed in circulation.

Great care has always been taken in the selection of Books to study the wishes of Subscribers, and to make the Library, not only "Select," but comprehensive.

More than One Million Volumes have been added since 1874.

Additional Copies of all the Best New Works in History, Biography, Religion, Philosophy, Travel and Adventure, and the Higher Class of Fiction continue to be added as the demand increases; and arrangements are made with the leading Publishers for an ample supply of all Forthcoming Books of general interest as they appear.

FIRST-CLASS SUBSCRIPTION, ONE GUINEA PER ANNUM,
For a Constant Succession of the Newest Books.
BOOK SOCIETIES AND INSTITUTIONS SUPPLIED ON LIBERAL TERMS.
Revised Lists of Works recently added, and Catalogues of Surplus Copies withdrawn for Sale at greatly reduced prices, are now ready, and will be forwarded postage free on application.

STUDIES in PHYSICAL SCIENCE. The Sun; Transit of Venus; Spectrum Analysis; the Moon; the Stars and Planets; Comets and Meteors; Atmospheric Electricity; Whirlwinds; Glaciers; the Telephone. By W. J. MILLAR, C.E., Secretary to the Institution of Engineers and Shipbuilders in Scotland; Author of "Principles of Mechanics," &c.
"This work consists of chapters from several sciences—astronomy, electricity, heat, light, &c. They cover a good deal of ground, and include objects as wide apart as whirlwinds and spectrum analysis, glaciers and the telephone."—Liverpool Albion.
"We can confidently recommend Mr. Millar's volume to the attention both of teachers in search of an elementary text-book, and to private students, as well as to the general reader. It unites the utmost lucidity with strict scientific accuracy, and deals with ascertained facts rather than with vague theories."—Greenock Daily Telegraph.
